Points to Note on the Application for Addition / Deletion of Family Members

Before Execution of the Deed of Assignment of HOS flat, the purchaser(s) with the intention to add or delete the family member(s) may do so by first submitting a written application in which the address of the HOS flat, daytime contact telephone number(s), and the reasons for making such application have to be specified. It should then be signed by the purchaser(s) and all those (except for addition of the minors or deletion of the deceased) who intend to have their names added / deleted.

For application for deletion of family member(s), please attach a copy of the Certificate of Marriage or Death Certificate (for the deceased), etc. Upon deletion of a family member, the family must still remain at least one family member who has been living in Hong Kong for not less than seven years.

For application for addition of family member(s), please attach copy/copies of the Certificate of Marriage, Birth Certificate and Hong Kong Identity Card, etc.

Green Form applicants who are tenants of public rental housing units should first apply for addition / deletion of family members to / from the respective Tenancy Agreement/Tenancy Card at the District Tenancy Management Office concerned.
